Man in critical condition after falling from Hanakāpī'ai trail

HANAKAPIAI – A Kona man remains in critical condition after falling from the Hanakāpī'ai Trail on Saturday.

Rescue 3 aboard Air 1 responded to the scene at approximately 8:45 a.m. after the male hiker, age 52, fell approximately 30 feet near the Hanakāpī'ai Stream. He had suffered severe injuries and was unconscious when rescuers airlifted him out of the valley to Princeville Airport.

Awaiting medics transported him to Wilcox Hospital in critical condition. He was the medevaced to Queen's Hospital where he remains.
